Your Pin Your Responsibility – Revalidation (NMC) Influencing and Delegation Seminar

Success in any undertaking can be down to how we influence others, it increases your effectiveness and greases the wheels of work in a way no other skill can. Once acquired that skill can be coupled with a keen ability to delegate and get the best from others.

Target Audience
The course for anyone with a need to revalidate under the NMC Scheme post 2016.

Benefits
- Adds 7 hours of participatory CPD to your portfolio
- Includes all the paperwork you will need to complete and verify the CPD
- Affords you access to the Polkadot Consultants Ltd linked in group
- A chance to meet fellow professionals and share best practice
- Your potential future employment and promotion opportunities are enhanced
- Meet other professionals and explore options for further learning

Course Overview
The learning explores the ideas and theories of influencing and delegation and their practical application in the workplace.

1. Revalidation – What a pain, or is it?
2. Your Portfolio and Polkadot Consultants Ltd
3. What is influencing?
4. You as an influencer
5. Perception and self-limiting beliefs
6. Brushing up on communication skills
7. Delegation is not abdication
8. Why delegation matters
9. Prioritising in delegation activities
10. Skills to encourage others to willingly help

Activities include, exercises, discussion, and debate. The central aim is to present you with models for influencing and delegation so you can utilise them fully in your professional life.

Course Duration
The course runs for one day, on-site or off site according to your needs. For onsite enquiries please contact us by e-mail infonmc@polkadotconsultants.co.uk

www.polkadotconsultants.co.uk